Taking the Worst of the Worst Off the Streets

Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force (CARFTF)

On July 26, 2006 Rashard Hubbard, a Prince George's County (MD) Most Wanted fugitive, was arrested in Clinton, MD by members of CARFTF. Authorities in Prince George's County sought Hubbard for Murder for allegedly shooting another man to death in Landover, MD in October 2005. Project Exile, a US Attorney's Office initiative to identify an area's most violent offenders, also targeted Hubbard. CARFTF investigators developed information regarding Hubbard's location, and during that investigation took two of his associates wanted for Attempted Murder and weapons violations into custody. CARFTF later developed exact information on Hubbard's location, responded to that target site, and safely took him into custody. In the course of the investigation, CARFTF seized a handgun, an AK-47 assault rifle, and quantities of marijuana and crack cocaine.

Great Lakes Regional Fugitive Task Force (GLRFTF)

On July 27, 2006 Davion Davis was arrested in Minneapolis, MN by deputy US marshals (DUSMs) from the East Metro Fugitive Task Force (EMFTF). Authorities in Racine, WI wanted Davis for a May 18, 2006 Homicide. During this incident Davis allegedly shot another man in the neck and chest, killing him. Racine PD contacted GLRFTF for assistance in locating and apprehending Davis. GLRFTF investigators developed information that Davis fled to the Minneapolis / St. Paul area, and forwarded a collateral lead to EMFTF personnel. EMFTF, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed a specific location for Davis and responded to that location. After confirming Davis' presence, EMFTF made entry and safely took him into custody. Davis, who has an extensive criminal history of narcotics, weapons, and assault violations, currently awaits extradition to Wisconsin.

Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force (PSWRFTF)

On July 27, 2006 David Michael Younger was arrested in Los Angeles, CA by members of PSWRFTF and detectives from the Orange County (CA) Sheriff's Department, Santa Ana, CA PD, and Anaheim, CA PD. Authorities wanted Younger for Bank Robbery for his alleged involvement in a string of seventeen robberies. During these robberies, Younger would allegedly show bank tellers a note directing them to surrender money in three seconds, 'or else'. Based on this pattern of behavior, media outlets dubbed the robberies the work of the Three Second Bandit. The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) requested the assistance of PSWRFTF in locating and apprehending Younger. PSWRFTF, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information on Younger's location, responded to that site, and safely took him into custody.

New York/New Jersey Regional Fugitive Task Force (NY/NJ RFTF)

On July 28, 2006 Christopher Jones was arrested in East Stroudsburg, PA by members of NY/NJ RFTF, deputy US marshals (DUSMs) from the Middle District of Pennsylvania (M/PA), and officers from the East Stroudsburg Regional SWAT Team (ESR-SWAT). The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) wanted Jones for Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution; the New York State Division of Parole wanted him for Parole Violation on an underlying Assault charge; Baltimore, MD PD wanted him for Aggravated Assault; and New York, NY PD wanted him for questioning relating to a 2001 Homicide. Investigators arrested Jones during Operation Rolling Thunder, a state-wide initiative targeting violent fugitives in New York. Information from the Nassau County (NY) PD Gang Investigation Squad and Narcotics Bureau indicated that Jones fled to East Stroudsburg. Acting on this information, NY/NJ RFTF investigators teamed with M/PA DUSMs and responded to Jones' suspected location. Investigators later confirmed Jones' location inside of the target residence and requested ESR-SWAT assistance. ESR-SWAT made entry, discovered Jones hiding in a crawl space, and safely took him into custody. Jones awaits extradition to New York.

Gulf Coast Regional Fugitive Task Force (GCRFTF)

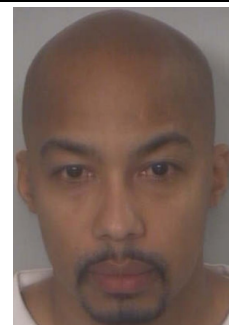

On July 25, 2006 Smokey Don Pipes was arrested in Pascagoula, MS by members of GCRFTF. Broken Arrow, OK PD wanted Pipes for Felony Discharge of a Weapon, Feloniously Pointing a Firearm, and Eluding. On July 12, 2006 Pipes became involved in an altercation at a Broken Arrow bar. After leaving that bar, Pipes allegedly fired several shots from a .40 cal handgun through the building's front entrance, wounded a woman inside, and then fled on a motorcycle. Law enforcement pursued Pipes, an experienced motorcyclist, but roadblocks and aerial units proved unsuccessful in halting his flight. During the pursuit Pipes allegedly pointed his weapon at an officer manning a roadblock. The officer fired on Pipes, but failed to hit him. Northern Oklahoma Violent Crime Task Force (NOVCTF) investigators, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information on Pipes' location in Mississippi and forwarded a collateral lead to GCRFTF personnel. GCRFTF immediately responded to the information, observed Pipes riding the same motorcycle he allegedly used to elude authorities in Oklahoma, and established surveillance. GCRFTF investigators followed Pipes to a shipyard in Pascagoula and safely took him into custody.
